

TiE summit attracts 1,500 delegates

BUSINESS BUREAU

Hyderabad: The three-day TiE Entrepreneurial Summit 2013 (TES 2013) which concluded in the city on Friday had attracted over 1,500 delegates from across the world. The event, considered as Asia's largest annual conference of the entrepreneurial ecosystem, saw over 100 speakers delivering motivational speeches to encourage upcoming entrepreneurs who took part in the event.

The third and last day of the event had motivating sessions from Dr Bernard A Harris Jr, former astronaut, NASA followed by an Investor Power Panel, moderated by Pravin Gandhi, Founding Partner – Seedfund. The panel discussed about the potential opportunities which the investors see and what kind of firms would they invest in. Other speakers on the final day included Subroto Bagchi, Chairman, Mindtree, Bhaskar Pramanik, Chairman, Microsoft India and Ronnie Screwvala, Founder and CEO, UTV Group.

"We are elated to successfully host TES 2013 and the eminent leaders who came down to Hyderabad to motivate the delegates during TiE Summit. TiE Hyderabad will continue to bring together all stakeholders and will further play an active part in creating an inclusive ecosystem to promote entrepreneurship," said Murali Bukkapatnam, President, TiE Hyderabad and MD, getdomestichelp.com.
